ABOUT THE COMPETITION

The upcoming 1st SGTU Ranka International Trial Advocacy Competition in 2024 promises to be a groundbreaking event that will bring together legal minds from across the globe to showcase their advocacy skills and legal acumen. Scheduled to take place at the esteemed SGTU Ranka University, this competition will provide a platform for law students and young legal professionals to engage in a simulated courtroom environment, honing their trial advocacy skills and gaining valuable practical experience. The competition is set to feature teams from renowned law schools and institutions, both nationally and internationally, reflecting the truly global nature of the event. Participants will have the opportunity to argue cases in front of experienced judges, emulating a real courtroom setting and allowing them to demonstrate their proficiency in various aspects of trial advocacy, including legal research, case analysis, and oral argumentation.

The competition is designed to encompass multiple rounds, each presenting a new set of challenges and legal scenarios. Teams will be tasked with preparing and presenting their cases, examining and cross-examining witnesses, and responding to unexpected developments in the courtroom. The cases are expected to be complex and multifaceted, requiring participants to navigate intricate legal issues and present compelling arguments. Distinguished legal professionals and academics are expected to serve as judges, evaluating participants based on their legal knowledge, presentation skills, and overall courtroom demeanour. The feedback provided by the judges is anticipated to contribute not only to the competitive aspect of the event but also to serve as a valuable learning experience for the participants, helping them refine their advocacy skills and deepen their understanding of legal practice. Apart from the rigorous competition, the event is expected to include various networking opportunities and panel discussions featuring prominent legal experts. Participants will have the chance to engage with experienced practitioners, gaining insights into the realities of legal practice and expanding their professional networks.

The 1st SGTU Ranka National Trial Advocacy Competition in 2024 is poised to be a pivotal event in the legal calendar, offering a unique and enriching experience for participants and spectators alike. It is anticipated to showcase the talent and dedication of emerging legal professionals while reinforcing the importance of practical skills.

Trial advocacy refers to the skills and techniques employed by attorneys during a trial to present their case effectively and persuasively. The goal of trial advocacy is to advocate for the client's position and persuade the judge and/or jury to rule in favour of that position. Here are some key aspects of trial advocacy:

Preparation:

- Thoroughly understanding the facts of the case, legal issues, and evidence is crucial.
- Developing a strong case strategy and identifying key arguments to support the client's position.

Opening Statements:

- Crafting a compelling opening statement that introduces the case, outlines key points, and sets the stage for the trial.

Direct and Cross-Examination:

- Conducting effective direct examination of witnesses to elicit favourable testimony.
- Skillfully cross-examining opposing witnesses to challenge their credibility or present a different narrative.

Evidence Presentation:

- Knowing the rules of evidence and presenting relevant and admissible evidence to support the case.
- Objecting to improper evidence presented by the opposing party.

Legal Arguments:

- Making persuasive legal arguments based on statutes, case law, and precedent.
- Responding to opposing legal arguments and challenges. And other skills as well.
