About MARG

स्वयमेव मृगेन्द्रता

MARG, established under the Societies Registration Act XXI of 1860, is committed to enhancing the quality of life for underprivileged communities nationwide. Our comprehensive approach spans sectors like health, education, sanitation, and employability. In agriculture, we promote organic farming practices and raise awareness among farmers. We also support the preservation of regional heritage and cultural organizations while providing aid to the physically challenged through equipment provision and training programs. Our initiatives extend to animal husbandry and fisheries, empowering individuals with sustainable livelihood skills. We prioritize economic, social, and cultural development for marginalized groups such as Dalits, Harijans, and Tribals, alongside providing holistic care for vulnerable populations like orphans, elderly, and widows. Through diverse programs and initiatives, including nutritional support and healthcare services, MARG aims to uplift communities and foster inclusivity and prosperity nationwide.

About the Competition

The Centre for Policies, Laws and Agenda at NUSRL Ranchi is proud to announce the inaugural edition of the Legislative Policy Drafting and Presentation Competition. This competition presents a unique opportunity for participants to delve into the intricacies of legislative drafting, refining their skills in the process. It aims to guide participants through the entire drafting process, from identifying issues to achieving a balanced approach between idealistic and pragmatic considerations.

Engaging in legislative drafting enhances students' ability to recognize existing legal issues and gaps, enabling them to propose effective solutions. It also broadens their knowledge, analytical capabilities, and interpretation of the law. The competition extends an open invitation to students from all law schools, encouraging them to participate and contribute to the exchange of ideas and experiences on the designated topic.

The chosen theme for the first Legislative Policy Drafting and Presentation Competition is the "Cryptocurrency Regulation Challenge." The competition's objective is to create a platform for bright minds to conduct analytical research on laws in various jurisdictions and devise intellectually sound provisions applicable to the Indian legal framework. Ultimately, the competition seeks to foster an environment for the exchange of ideas and experiences, welcoming participation from both law students and legal practitioners in the legislative drafting process.
