ABOUT THE

MOOT COURT COMPETITION

The Moot Court Committee, Madhav Vidhi Mahavidyalaya and Research Centre is organising Shri Baba Saheb Gokhle First National Moot Court Competition 2024. The National Moot Court Competition is where eloquence meets justice, where students transform into legal eagle, and where the Courtroom drama unfolds beyond the pages of textbooks.

Moot court competitions offer students practical experience in a simulated courtroom setting. This experience helps students become more comfortable with courtroom procedures, rules of evidence, and oral advocacy techniques, preparing them for real-world legal practice.

This Moot Court Competition allow you to hone your legal skills, including legal research, writing, and oral advocacy. Participants are required to analyze legal issues, construct persuasive arguments, and present them effectively before judges.

This Competitions often bring together students, faculty, and legal professionals from various institutions and jurisdictions. This provides students with networking opportunities that can be beneficial for their future careers.

MOOT PROBLEM

- 1.Rohit Mehra is a 28-year-old entrepreneur. He completed his MBA in Marketing from the Indica Institute of Management (a prestigious institute) (Batch 2017–19) in Leeknow, Uttam Pradesh, Indica. After completing his graduation, Mr. Rohit Mehra went abroad for a year to learn the art of perfumery in the renowned state of Francis (a country in Europa). After returning, he started his own company of perfumes with the name 'Scents'. The company has built a good reputation in the Indiana market in a very short span of time.
- 2.Preeti Singh, a 27-year-old marketing executive, completed her education at the Indica Institute of Technology (Batch 2017-19) in Leeknow, Uttam Pradesh. After graduating, she got a campus placement from the college itself in a renowned company, 'TCM', where she has been working since then as a software developer at a good pay.
- 3.During their masters, both used to work on many projects during thier internship and field assignments and soon developed a strong sense of liking for each other. Preeti was mesmerized by Rohit's charm and ambition, whereas Rohit was awestruck by preeti's beauty and intelligence. They both confessed their love to each other on 10th March 2018.
- 4.Their love was intact even when Rohit went abroad to study the art of perfumery in 2019. The two used to have long conversations over voice calls, instant messages and video calls for over a year. After returning to Indica, their relationship became stronger than ever both physically and emotionally.
- 5.While in relationship Rohit used to take Preeti with him to all the social gatherings and functions. On the night of November 20, 2022, Rohit took Preeti to his brother's marriage, where she met Rohit's family and relatives. Rohit introduced Preeti to his mother, where Rohit's mother, after meeting preeti ,asked both of them, "When will you two throw a similar function for us?". Listening to the question, Rohit and Preeti looked at each other and smiled, and then Preeti said, "Soon." Listening to the same Rohit, he did not respond.
- 6.Also, Rohit used to introduce Preeti to his friend circle, thereby bringing their relationship into the knowledge of their social circle. Rohit, during a party when he was in a drunken state, was asked by his friends Aditya and megha, who were married, about the future of his relationship with preeti, to which Rohit replied, 'Preeti will make a perfect wife'. The same conversation was narrated to Preeti by megha without the consent or knowledge of Rohit. Rohit was unaware of any such communication being made to preeti by Megha.
- 7.Rohit and Preeti started living together. Rohit pitched an idea to Preeti that she should work with him and develop an app for his perfume company 'Scents' so that they can sell their perfumes directly without involving other shopping applications like Amacon, Flipmart etc. Riya liked the idea and started working on developing the app for it, but at the same time, iterated that she would not quit her job.
- 8.As they were in a relationship, no formal written contract was executed between the two, and thus the entire agreement was based on the exchange of messages on ChatsApp (an instant messaging application).

9. Over a ChatsApp chat on 13th May 2023, both of them agreed on a payment structure in which Preeti will get a lumpsum amount of Rs.10 Lac once the application is developed. However, the mode and timing of payments were not clearly defined.

10.As the work progressed, the parties experienced disagreements relating to the development of the application, with Rohit claiming that some crucial aspects of the project were left as Preeti was not able to balance her job and working on the application at the same time, thereby leaving Rohit frustrated.

11.As a consequence of the same, Rohit denied adequate payment as promised in the WhatsApp chats on the ground of a deficiency in services rendered, thus annoying preeti .But Rohan calmed her down so that their relationship was not affected.

12.On November 17, 2023, Preeti asked Rohan to marry her, which Rohit denied and thereby called off the relationship.

13.Meanwhile, feeling deceived and emotionally distressed, filed an FIR alleging that Rohit had engaged in sexual intercourse with her on the pretext of marriage, and now he was refusing to fulfil his promise. Rohit denies any expressed promise relating to marriage made by him, whereas Preeti contends that an implied promise of marriage was made and thus she gave her consent for sexual intercourse on the pretext of marriage.

14.Following the same, medical tests were performed and it was confirmed on the basis of reports that sexual intercourse took place frequently between Rohan and Riya. However, nothing was concluded on the matter of consent.

15.As a consequence of the same, Rohit twas arrested. Rohit was presented before the magistrate.

16.Rohit was denied bail and was later acquitted for the charges by Trial Court of Lekhnow. The trial court held that, both Preeti and Rohit were in consensual relationship, therefore, Rohan cannot be held liable for Rape.

17.Preeti filed an appeal against the trial Court's Order in High Court of Ultra Pradesh. The High Court reversed trial Court's judgment and convicted Rohit for the charge of Rape on the pretext of Marriage. Rohan then filed a Special Leave Petition in Supreme Court of Indica against High Court's order.

18.Rohit further asked the court to take into consideration that his family had been looking out for a bride on marriage platform Jeevanteresaaathi.com and thus, he and Rohit (the girl who agreed to marry him through Jeevanteresaaathi.com) have decided to get married and that his fundamental Right to Marry enshrined by the Constitution of Indica would be violated.

19.However, Preeti also filed a suit for breach of contract. To which Rohit alleges that conversations on ChatsApp are not formalin nature. He also contends that WhatsApp chats does not form a valid contract.

20.Apart from this, Rohit has also challenged the constitutional validity of Section 375 of the Indica Penal Code, 1860, entitling only women to file a case on the ground of consent on the pretext of marriage and the same not available to men.

21. The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, for the sake of convenience, decided to hear all the cases on the same day with the following issues:

ISSUES

•	Whether the Special Leave Petition is Maintainable in the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India.
•	Whether the agreement entered into by Rohit and Preeti on ChatsApp amounts to a valid contract recognizable by laws in India?
•	Whether the consent for sexual intercourse was given by Preeti only the pretext of marriage and does it amount to rape under Section 375 of Indian Penal Code.
•	Whether a denial of bail for Rohit for the purpose of his marriage would amount to an infringement of his fundamental right under the Constitution of India?

NOTE:

- 1. The laws in the Union of India and the Union of India are in pari materia.
- 2. The Counsels representing both sides are required to address the issues that are specifically mentioned in the moot problem.
- 3. The Counsels may formulate their own sub-issues in the above-mentioned issues.

ONE-DAY CITY TOUR

One-Day City Tour of Gwalior City shall be conducted for all the participants, to immerse them with the iconic heritage and rich history with modern charm offering visitors a unique cultural experience.

Gwalior is also known as the City of Music, nestled in the heart of India, every corner of this city tells a story of its glorious past. Whether you're an art enthusiast, history buff, or simply seeking an enriching cultural experience, Gwalior promises to captivate your senses and leave you enchanted. Many places you'd like to and should visit to immerse yourself in the timeless charm of Gwalior and discover the treasures that await in this city of wonders following places to visit in Gwalior :

GWALIOR FORT

Perched 300 meters high, the Gwalior Fort commands the landscape with its formidable presence. Spread across an expansive area of approximately 3 square kilometers, this historic monument has stood witness to over a millennium of Indian history. Dating back to the 8th century, it has served as a seat of power for various dynasties, including the Tomars, Mughals, and Marathas. With its blend of Rajput, Mughal, and Hindu architectural styles, including the iconic Man Mandir Palace and Sas Bahu Temples, the fort stands as a testament to India's diverse cultural legacy. Today, it remains a cherished symbol of the region's rich history and architectural brilliance.

MANSINGH PALACE

Nestled within the expansive Gwalior Fort complex, the Man Singh Palace stands as a testament to architectural grandeur and historical significance. Spread across an area of approximately 1.5 acres, this magnificent palace exemplifies the architectural brilliance of the Tomar dynasty, dating back to the 15th century. With its intricately carved pillars, ornate balconies, and stunning views of the surrounding landscape, the palace offers a glimpse into the opulent lifestyle of the rulers of Gwalior. Today, it stands as a cherished monument, attracting visitors from around the world who come to marvel at its exquisite craftsmanship and rich historical heritage.

JAI VILAS PALACE

Situated majestically amidst the enchanting landscape of Gwalior, the Jai Vilas Palace epitomizes luxury and grandeur. Spread across an area of approximately 12,40,771 square feet, this majestic palace exemplifies the architectural brilliance of the Maratha rulers of Gwalior. Built in the 19th century by Maharaja Jayajirao Scindia, the palace mesmerizes visitors with its intricate carvings, ornate interiors, and sprawling gardens. Housing the world's largest chandelier and a remarkable collection of artifacts, including the historic silver train, the palace offers a glimpse into the extravagant lifestyle of the Scindia dynasty. Today, it stands as a cherished heritage monument, inviting visitors to step back in time and immerse themselves in the splendor of bygone eras.

TOMB OF TANSEN

Located amidst the historic splendor of Gwalior, the Tomb of Tansen stands as a serene tribute to one of India's most revered musical icons. Surrounded by lush greenery and imbued with a sense of reverence, this sacred site is where the legendary musician, Tansen, found his final resting place. Built in the Mughal architectural style, the tomb exudes an aura of peace and spirituality, attracting music lovers and seekers of divine inspiration alike. Visitors to this hallowed site are greeted by the melodies of Tansen's immortal compositions, echoing through the ages and reminding us of the enduring legacy of his musical genius. As you wander through the serene surroundings of the tomb, you can't help but feel a sense of awe and reverence for the musical legend whose soulful melodies continue to resonate in the hearts of millions.

MESSAGE FROM ORGANISING SECRETARY

DR. RAJENDRA DHAKAD
ASST. PROF. MADHAV VIDHI MAHAVIDHYALAYA
CONTACT NO.- +919926292210

In the academic tapestry of our college, the Moot Court Competition stands as a beacon of excellence and a cornerstone of legal education. This transformative event transcends the traditional boundaries of classrooms, offering students a unique and invaluable opportunity to apply theoretical knowledge in a practical, courtroom setting. We proudly announce the commencement of the First National Moot Court Competition.

The moot court is not just a simulation; it is a journey into the core of jurisprudence, where theoretical knowledge meets the real world application in a court room setting.

The National Moot Court Competition, now in its first year, has evolved into a platform that not only tests the mettle of our participants but also serves as a crucible for the development of essential skills that transcend the classroom. This event is an opportunity for each participant to showcase their legal acumen, research prowess, and advocacy skills.

It has been correctly stated that "In the moot court, students don't just present cases; they present a commitment to justice, a dedication to the principles that underpin our legal system."

At the end do embrace the challenges, relish the intellectual debates, and forge connections that will last a lifetime. Remember, the skills you hone here will serve as the foundation for a successful legal profession.

Wishing all participants a stimulating and rewarding experience throughout the National Moot Court Competition. May this occasion be a venturing stone towards a future where your lawful commitments shape the course of equity.

Let the arguments be eloquent, the debates profound, and the experience unforgettable!
First National Moot Court Competition.
