Project Rojgar Sathi Volunteer Internship Program

About Indian Centre for Child and Human Rights (ICCHR)

Indian Centre for Child and Human Rights (ICCHR) is an initiative by the Truth & Youth and Umeed NGO at its inception in 2021, aimed at promoting research and facilitating students and researchers with a proper understanding of Child and Human rights. The Centre is a national research centre under the supervision of UNICEF India and provides integrated technical support to legal institutions of governance at the local, state, and national levels for the protection of child and human rights through knowledge, research, and resources.

The Centre's mission is to engage with Child and Human rights from a multidisciplinary perspective with a main emphasis on practical and ground research. To achieve its mission, the ICCHR engages in publishing a quarterly and half-yearly Extensive Research Project (ERP) on various contemporary issues concerning Child and Human rights of national and international importance. The research project covers suggestions and detailed analysis of the ground report for the concerned authorities and institutions to work upon.

In addition to its research activities, the ICCHR collaborates with various NGOs, conducts webinars and seminars, and runs awareness campaigns. The Centre also runs various PAN India internship programs to provide opportunities to students from various backgrounds and felicitate budding learners to show their skills on various platforms run by the ICCHR and its associates.

About Project Rojgar Sathi

Project Rojgar Sathi: Work, Livelihood, Life (रोजगार साथी) is a national initiative launched by Indian Centre for Child and Human Rights (ICCHR) in association with WebX Hub Co.- IT and Consultancy Company to provide employment opportunities to unemployed youth across India. The project aims to address the growing problem of unemployment in the country by connecting job seekers with employers, creating a platform for skill development, and promoting entrepreneurship.

The project is launched in the National Capital Territory of Delhi in its initial stage, where it will be active on the ground level, starting from small villages to the smallest towns, and gradually expanding across the country by the end of June. Project Rojgar Sathi is a non-profit initiative, and it has been designed to help young people find jobs within their interests, qualification, and area of expertise.

The project's objective is to empower the youth by providing them with the right opportunities to enhance their skills and secure sustainable employment. It will offer a range of services, including job counselling, job placement, skill development, and entrepreneurship training. The program will also help in creating awareness among the youth about the various government schemes available for employment generation and support.
