ABOUT THE FOUNDER

“The journey of a thousand miles begins with one step”. The foundation stone of IPEM was laid under the leadership of Late Dr B.S. Goel, who was determined to impart an education that adds value to an individual. Considering that the students are the clearest representatives of the future, he tried to formulate new teaching methods and pedagogies that can prepare them for a complex and competitive future. He once said “What I hope students will acquire at IPEM is the ability to think out of the box to come up with modern solutions for modern problems. He wanted to prepare students to face global challenges with their overarching competency.”
